On Thursday, October 19, 2006, SPNA will be conducting a Dedication of our new entrance sign at the intersection of Central Blvd. and Carolina Beach Rd., followed by a Reception recognizing and honoring everyone who has contributed to the improvement of our quality of life, including our elected officials, Wilm. Police Officers, Wilm. Firefighters, and other city employees, business contributors, Sunset Park Baptist Church and our own volunteers. Opening remarks will be by Mayor Bill Saffo and other community leaders.

Davie Waggett, owner of Seashore Drugs, has made a significant donation of a National Historic Register plaque to be placed on the entrance sign.

This will be followed by a reception and recognition at the Sunset Park Baptist Church Fellowship Hall, 231 Central Blvd. Presentation of certificates of appreciation, and refreshments including a formal “cake cutting” will highlight the reception.

Everyone is invited to attend, participate and show support for our community businesses, media, city employees who are dedicated to keeping our community safe and secure, maintain our trees and parks, keep our neighborhood clean, and our own volunteers who are the backbone of our Association.
